METALLURGY TRADE FAIR TRIO IN ISTANBUL

“The premier metallurgy event in Turkey and Eurasia in 2008 for information exchange, new business development and networking”

Hannover Messe Ankiros Fuarçılık A.S. is proud to announce that ANKIROS 9th International Iron – Steel & Foundry Technology, Machinery & Products Trade Fair -ANNOFER 7th International Non-ferrous Metals Technology, Machinery & Products Trade Fair and TURKCAST 3rd Foundry Products Trade Fair will be organised between the dates 16-19 October 2008, in Istanbul.

ANKIROS/ANNOFER 2008 Exhibitions welcome the companies providing and selling machinery, equipment, process, supplies, engineering, services to sector’s producers and to the foundry and iron & steel, non-ferrous industry. TURKCAST 2008 provides an excellent marketing platform for casting suppliers to promote their cast metal products and services.

The organizer, Hannover Messe Ankiros Fuarçılık A.S. is expecting greater exhibitor and visitor numbers than before. Hannover Messe Ankiros Fuarçılık A.S. bases these predictions not only on Turkish and Eurasian strong market potential but also on full support receiving from national associations, TUDOKSAD-Foundrymen's Association of Turkey, UCEAT Chamber of metallurgical Engineers, DÇÜ-Iron and Steel Producers Association, and international associations CECOF-European Committee of Industrial Furnace and Heating Equipment Associations, CEMAFON-European Committee for Materials and Products for Foundries. With having this support behind, the show is accepted not only as the unique sector activity in Eurasia but also one of the most important events in the metallurgy calendar.

Concurrent with ANKIROS ANNOFER TURKCAST Exhibitions, the 4th International Ankiros Foundry Congress” by the Foundrymen’s Association of Turkey and “IMMC 2008, 14th International Metallurgy-Materials Congress” by UCEAT Chamber of Metallurgical Engineers will run. During these congresses, current trends and issues within the industry will be explored and debated, and possible solutions to the challenges of the date will be identified by decision-makers of the sector.

ANKIROS/ANNOFER/TURKCAST 2008 is set to attract an even larger international participation than all previous events. There will be German, Spanish, Chinese, Italian Pavilions as well as many international participants and other country pavilions. A large number of Turkish companies will also be using ANKIROS/ANNOFER/TURKCAST 2008 to showcase their products.

The dramatic increase in the number of the exhibitors and the visitors shows that the successful trend of the exhibitions has been continuing especially in terms of meeting the needs of the industry. Over 14.000 trade visitors are expected to visit the event for more than one day as more than 700 exhibiting companies present the latest technologies on over 30.000 m<sup>2</sup> during 2008 events.

New technologies, ideas and examples to drive business forward and productive discussions: all this and more is guaranteed – at ANKIROS ANNOFER TURKCAST 2008.
